

SHORT CV

Mariachiara Alberton

Mariachiara Alberton, Ph.D. in Law and Economics (2007, University of Siena-Italy), is Senior Researcher in Environmental Law and Policy at the Institute for Studies on Federalism and Regionalism, EURAC, Bolzano/Bozen (Italy). She has published monographs, edited books and articles on international and EU environmental law and climate change. She has been coordinator, project manager and legal team leader of several EU funded projects (e.g. South East Europe Programme, EuropeAid). She has been involved as legal consultant in the implementation process of the EU environmental legislation and the climate change related policy and regulation in Serbia, Montenegro, Albania and Macedonia. She has been assistant Professor of EU law and environmental law for several years at the University of Siena.

Contact: mariachiara.alberton@eurac.edu

Personal homepage: <<http://www.eurac.edu/about/collaborators/malberton/index.htm>>